

Moving Overseas?

As our valued client, we'd like to help make your move overseas as easy and stress free as possible.

We are part of the Expatland Global Network - a group of local and global professionals, like us, that work together to help people like you planning to leave our city and work overseas.

Our membership of the Expatland Global Network gives us the ability to make sure whatever you need in your move abroad, is close at hand.

Our local E-Team can help you plan your departure easily across a range of services.

Depending on the city you are moving to, our foreign E-Teams may be able to help you arrive and settle in comfortably in to your new home city.

Our network is growing and our range of cities covered is continually increasing.

By providing us more details about your move, we will be able to introduce you to relevant members locally and in the city you are moving to.

Although we are part of a global community of professionals please note:

- we work independently;
- we are not partners, or joint ventures;
- we do not split revenue or fees in the delivery of our independent services with the Expatland Global Network.

Our focus as an E-Team is making sure you have a great departure experience from our city and quickly settle in to your new city.
